OPTIONAL WRITING SAMPLE

In the instructions for The Common Application, students are required to submit only one writing sample. If you only submitted one sample, you are strongly encouraged to respond to one of the following prompts. You should view this as an opportunity to share additional information about yourself with the Admissions Committee. The Admissions Committee is interested in both your ideas and in how you express them and will read your writing with regard to both content and style. Clearly type or print your response on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to this form. Include your name and social security number on any attached sheet.

- a) What experience in high school has mattered most to you? How do you see this experience influencing your decision-making in college?
  - b) Although it may appear to the contrary, we do know that people have a life beyond what they do to get into college. Tell us about an experience you've had outside of your formal classroom and extracurricular activities that was just plain fun and why.

OPTIONAL INFORMATION

We encourage students with special talent or interest related to athletics, the arts and/or the sciences to submit supplementary materials. These materials are evaluated by faculty in the appropriate department and may have a positive impact upon your candidacy. If you are planning to submit materials of this nature, please check the appropriate box below and review the sheet Instructions for Supplemental Materials.
