Independent Auditors' Report

The Board of Trustees
Pomona College:

We have audited the accompanying statements of financial position of Pomona College (the College) as of June 30, 2012 and 2011, and the related statements of activities and cash flows for the years then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the College's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America and the standards applicable to financial audits contained in Government Auditing Standards, issued by the Comptroller General of the United States. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the College's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Pomona College as of June 30, 2012 and 2011, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

In accordance with Government Auditing Standards, we have issued our report dated November 16, 2012 on our consideration of the College's internal control over financial reporting and on our tests of its compliance with certain provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, grant agreements, and other matters. The purpose of that report is to describe the scope of our testing of internal control over financial reporting and compliance and the results of that testing, and not to provide an opinion on the internal control over financial reporting or on compliance. That report is an integral part of an audit performed in accordance with Government Auditing Standards and should be considered in assessing the results of our audits.

POMONA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2012 and 2011

(1) Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Reporting Organization

Founded in 1887, Pomona College (the College) is an independent, coeducational liberal arts college offering instruction in all major fields of the fine arts, humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. The College has an enrollment of approximately 1,560 students and a student-faculty ratio of seven to one.

Pomona College is a member of an affiliated group of colleges known as The Claremont Colleges. Each affiliated college is a separate corporate entity governed by a separate board of trustees. The Claremont University Consortium, a member of this group, acts as the coordinating institution, which provides common student and administrative services including certain central facilities utilized by all the colleges. The costs of these services and facilities are shared by the members of the group.

(b) Basis of Presentation

The accompanying financial statements of the College are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

(c) Classification of Net Assets

The accompanying financial statements present information regarding the College's financial position and activities according to the following three net asset categories:

Unrestricted Net Assets

Unrestricted net assets represent expendable funds available for operations, which are not otherwise limited by donor restrictions.

Temporarily Restricted Net Assets

Temporarily restricted net assets consist of contributed funds subject to specific donor-imposed restrictions, contingent upon specific performance of a future event or a specific passage of time before the College may spend the funds, and earnings on endowment funds that have not yet been appropriated.

Permanently Restricted Net Assets

Permanently restricted net assets are subject to donor restrictions requiring that the assets be maintained in perpetuity. The investment income generated from these assets is temporarily restricted by law until appropriated by the board of trustees in support of the College's programs and operations.

(d) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash includes all short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less when purchased. Cash and cash equivalents representing assets held in the investment pool are included in long-term investments (see note 6).

POMONA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2012 and 2011

The College maintains cash in various financial institutions, which periodically exceeds federally insured limits.

(e) Investments

Investments are reflected at fair value. The College uses net asset value (NAV) as a practical expedient for determining fair value of its financial instruments, in cases where appropriate criteria are met.

(f) Management of Pooled Investments

The College follows an investment policy, which anticipates a greater long-term return through investing for capital appreciation, and accepts lower current yields from dividends and interest. In order to offset the effect of lower current yields, the board of trustees has adopted a spending policy for pooled investments whereby annually, if the ordinary income from the pooled investments is insufficient to provide the full amount of investment return specified by the adopted spending policy, the balance may be appropriated from cumulative realized gains of the pooled investments.

(g) Property, Plant, and Equipment

Property, plant, and equipment are stated at cost, representing the purchase price or fair market value at the date of gift, less accumulated depreciation. Depreciation expense is computed using the straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets (generally, 7 years for equipment and land improvements and 40 years for buildings). Construction in progress will be depreciated over the useful lives of the respective assets when they are ready for their intended use. The costs and accumulated depreciation of assets sold or retired are removed from the accounts and the related gains and losses are included in the statement of activities.

(h) Art Collection

The College does not record or capitalize its art collections. The fine art collections of the College are housed in the Pomona College Museum of Art. Among important holdings are the Kress Collection of 15th and 16th century Italian panel paintings; over 5,000 examples of Pre-Columbian to 20th century American Indian art and artifacts; and a large collection of American and European prints, drawings, and photographs. All works in the collection are catalogued, preserved, cared for, and monitored according to professional museum standards, and are subject to a policy that requires proceeds from deaccession to be used exclusively for acquisition.

(i) Life Income and Annuities Obligation

The actuarial liability for life income and annuity contracts and agreements are based on the present value of future payments, discounted at a rate that is commensurate with the risks involved ranging from 2.00% to 7.23% and over estimated lives according to the Annuity 2000 Mortality Table.

(j) Revenue and Expense Recognition

Student tuition and fees are recorded as revenues in the year during which the related academic services are rendered. Student tuition and fees received in advance of services to be rendered are recorded as deferred revenues and are included in accrued payroll and other liabilities on the statement of financial position. Revenues from federal grants and contracts are recorded as allowable expenditures under such agreements are incurred. Contributions, including unconditional promises to give, are recognized as revenue in the period received and are reported as increases in the appropriate class of net assets. Conditional promises to give are not recognized until they become unconditional, that is, when the conditions on which they depend are substantially met. Contributions of assets other than cash are recorded at their estimated fair value. Contributions to be received after one year are discounted at an appropriate discount rate. An allowance for uncollectible contributions is estimated based upon such factors as prior collection history, type of contribution, and nature of fund-raising activity. Expenses are reported as decreases in unrestricted net assets. Gains and losses on investments, investment income, and other revenues are reported as increases or decreases in unrestricted net assets, unless their use is restricted by explicit donor stipulation.

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2012 and 2011

(k) Allocation of Certain Expenses

The statement of activities presents expenses by functional classification. Depreciation expense, operation and maintenance of plant, and interest expense are allocated based on square footage occupancy of college facilities. Included in institutional support expense for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011 is $7,344,000 and $7,165,000, respectively, of expenses related to fund-raising.

(l) Expiration of Donor-Imposed Restrictions

The expiration of a donor-imposed restriction on a contribution is recognized in the period in which the restriction expires. At that time, the related resources are reclassified to unrestricted net assets. A restriction expires when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted, has been fulfilled, or both.

The College follows the policy of reporting, as unrestricted support, donor imposed restricted contributions whose restrictions are met in the same period as received. It is the College's policy to lift the restrictions on contributions of cash or other assets received for the acquisition of long-lived assets when the long-lived assets are placed into service.

(m) Estates and Trusts

The College is named beneficiary of various estates in probate. Unless the ultimate amount available for distribution can be determined before the close of the probate proceedings, the College does not record these amounts until the time of asset distribution. Trusts in which the College is named as irrevocable beneficiary, but is not a trustee, are recorded when the College is notified by the trustee and the ownership percentage and valuation are determined.

(n) Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Estimates also affect the reported amount of revenues, expenses, and other changes in net assets during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

POMONA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2012 and 2011

(o) Income Taxes

The College is exempt for federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Section 23701d of the California Revenue and Taxation Code and is generally not subject to federal and state income taxes. However, the College is subject to income taxes on any income that is derived from a trade or business regularly carried on, and not in furtherance of the purposes for which it was granted exemption. No income tax provision has been recorded as the net income, if any, from any unrelated trade or business, in the opinion of management, is not material to the basic financial statements taken as a whole.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with GAAP prescribes for all entities, including pass-through entities, minimum thresholds for financial statement recognition of a position taken in filing tax returns (including whether an entity is taxable in a particular jurisdiction) and requires certain expanded tax disclosures. No such uncertain tax positions exist for the College at June 30, 2012 and 2011. The College files income tax returns in the U.S. Federal and the State of California jurisdictions, and is no longer subject to federal and state income tax examinations for tax years before 2008 and 2007, respectively.

(p) Reclassification

Certain reclassifications have been made to the 2011 financial data to conform to the 2012 presentation.

(2) Net Student Revenues

Student revenues for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011, in thousands of dollars, consist of the following:

	2012	2011
Tuition and fees	$ 63,766	60,497
Room and board	18,771	17,978
Gross student revenues	82,537	78,475
Less:
Sponsored financial aid	(13,622)	(13,310)
Un-sponsored financial aid	(15,393)	(13,588)
Student financial aid	(29,015)	(26,898)
Net student revenues	$ 53,522	51,577

“Sponsored” financial aid consists of funds provided by external entities (including donors of restricted funds), whereas “un-sponsored” aid consists of funds provided by the College.

POMONA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2012 and 2011

(3) Accounts and Other Receivables

Accounts and other receivables, net of allowance at June 30, 2012 and 2011, in thousands of dollars, are as follows:

	2012	2011
Private gifts and grants	$ 978	822
Investment income	1,440	9,423
Federal grants and contracts	834	691
Sales and other	222	224
	3,474	11,160
Less allowance for doubtful accounts	(49)	(13)
Accounts and other receivables, net of allowance	$ 3,425	11,147

(4) Notes Receivable

Notes receivable at June 30, 2012 and 2011, in thousands of dollars, are as follows:

	2012	2011
Loans receivable from students	$ 14,974	15,849
Less allowance for doubtful accounts	(553)	(540)
Notes receivable, net of allowance	$ 14,421	15,309

Determination of the fair value of student loans receivable, which are primarily federally sponsored student loans with U.S. government mandated interest rates and repayment terms subject to significant restrictions as to their transfer and disposition, could not be made without incurring excessive costs.

(5) Contributions Receivable

Unconditional promises to give are included in the financial statements as contributions receivable and revenue of the appropriate net asset category. Promises to give are recorded after discounting, at rates ranging from 2.00% to 3.05% to the present value of the future cash flows. Unconditional promises to give received during the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011 have been discounted at credit-adjusted rates commensurate with the risks associated with the contribution in accordance with Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 820, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures.

The College has been named remainderman in certain split-interest agreements. These trust agreements require that the trustee make annual or more frequent payments to the beneficiaries. Upon the death of the beneficiaries or other termination of the trusts, the remaining trust assets will be distributed to the College and other remaindermen as stipulated in the trust agreements. The College has recorded its beneficial interest in these split-interest agreements based on the present value of future cash flows using discount rates ranging from 4.55% to 7.23%. The actuarial assumption used in this calculation is based on the expected return on assets in effect at the date of the valuation. The underlying trust assets are valued at fair value and consist primarily of securities that are traded on the ready market.

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2012 and 2011

At June 30, 2012 and 2011, unconditional promises to give, in thousands of dollars, are expected to be received in the following periods:

	2012	2011
In one year or less	$ 8,425	15,341
Between one year and five years	14,825	13,619
More than five years	2,395	3,000
	25,645	31,960

Pledged contributions	23,696	30,306
Split-interest agreements	22,298	17,814
Contributions receivable, net	$ 45,994	48,120

Unconditional promises to give and split-interest agreements at June 30, 2012 and 2011, in thousands of dollars, have the following restrictions:

	2012	2011
Endowment for programs, activities, and scholarships	$ 11,521	11,247
Building construction	21,313	15,973
Education and general	15,109	22,554
	47,943	49,774
Less discount	(1,949)	(1,654)
Contributions receivable, net	$ 45,994	48,120

(6) Investments

(a) Fair Value Measurement

The fair value of the College's financial instruments as of June 30, 2012 and 2011 represents management's best estimates of the amounts that would be received to sell those assets in an orderly transaction between market participants at that date. Those fair value measurements maximize the use of observable inputs. However, in situations where there are little, if any, observable inputs, management's own judgments about the assumptions of market participants were used in pricing the asset. Those judgments are developed by management based on the best information available in the circumstances.

Although the College uses its best judgment in determining the fair value of investments, there are inherent limitations in any methodology. Therefore, the values presented herein are not necessarily

POMONA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2012 and 2011

indicative of the amount that the College could realize in a current transaction. Future confirming events could affect the estimates of fair value and could be material to the financial statements. These events could also affect the amount realized upon liquidation of the investments.

The fair value of investments at June 30, 2012 and 2011, in thousands of dollars, is as follows:

	2012	2011
Pooled investments:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 37,832	66,880

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2012 and 2011

The College's investment income net of related expenses for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011 was as follows, in thousands of dollars:

		2012	2011
Interest and dividends	$	14,541	15,409
Less investment expenses		(5,166)	(4,207)

Total investment income, net	$	33,272	296,018

(b) Absolute Return Strategies

Investments utilizing an absolute return strategy are less liquid than the College's other investments. These investments typically include certain types of financial instruments, including, among others, futures and forward contracts, options, and securities sold not yet purchased, intended to hedge against changes in the market value of investments. These financial instruments may result in loss due to changes in the market (market risk). The following table summarizes these investments by investment strategy type at June 30, 2012 and 2011, in thousands of dollars.

assets on the statement of financial position and as of June 30, 2011, a pending redemption of $8,000,000 included in accounts and other receivables on the statement of financial position.

(d) Pooled Fund

Where permitted by gift agreements and/or applicable government regulations, investments are pooled. Pooled investments and allocations of pooled investment income are accounted for on a unit fair value method. The following table summarizes data pertaining to this method for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011:

(e) Fair Value Hierarchy

The College's fair value hierarchy prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. The hierarchy gives the highest priority to unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1 measurements) and the lowest priority to unobservable inputs (Level 3 measurements). The three levels of the fair value hierarchy are as follows:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets that are accessible at the measurement date of identical, unrestricted assets. Assets and liabilities classified as Level 1 generally include listed equities, futures, options, and certain fixed income securities.

POMONA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

June 30, 2012 and 2011

Level 2 – Quoted prices for markets that are not active or financial instruments for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly. Assets and liabilities classified as Level 2 generally include equity swaps, forward contracts, certain fixed income securities, over-the-counter option contracts, and certain other derivatives.

Level 3 – Pricing inputs are unobservable for the asset and reflect the management's own assumptions to determine fair value. Assets classified as Level 3 include private investments that are supported by little or no market activity.

Inputs are used in applying the valuation techniques and broadly refer to the assumptions that the College uses to make valuation decisions, including assumptions about risk. Inputs may include quoted market prices, recent transactions, manager statements, periodicals, newspapers, provisions within agreements with investment managers, and other factors. An investment's level within the fair value hierarchy is based on the lowest level of any input that is significant to the fair value measurement. The categorization of an investment within the hierarchy is based upon the pricing transparency of the investment and does not necessarily correspond to the College's perceived risk of that investment.

The investments in cash and cash equivalents, short-term investments, certain domestic and international equities, certain emerging markets, and certain domestic fixed income are valued based on quoted market prices, and are, therefore, classified within Level 1.

The investments in certain international equities, certain emerging markets, domestic fixed income, international fixed income, and certain real properties are valued based on quoted market prices of comparable assets, and are, therefore, classified within Level 2.

The investments in private equity, long/short hedge funds, venture capital, absolute return hedge funds, certain real assets, certain investment funds focused on domestic and international equities, and international fixed incomes are valued utilizing unobservable inputs, and are, therefore, classified within Level 3. These investments are presented in the accompanying financial statements at fair value. The College's determination of fair value is based upon the best available information provided by the investment manager and may incorporate management assumptions and best estimates after considering a variety of internal and external factors. Such value generally represents the College's proportionate share of the partner's capital of the investment partnerships as reported by their general partners. For these investments, the College has determined, through its monitoring activities, to rely on the fair market value as determined by the investment managers.

The general partners of the underlying investment partnerships generally value their investments at fair value. Investments with no readily available market are generally valued according to the mark-to-market method, which attempts to apply a fair value standard by referring to meaningful third-party transactions, comparable public market valuations, and/or the income approach. Consideration is also given to financial condition and operating results of the investment, the amount that the investment partnerships can reasonably expect to realize upon the sale of the securities, and any other factors deemed relevant. An investment can be carried at acquisition price (cost) if little has changed since the initial investment of the company and is most representative of fair value. Investments with a readily available market (listed on a securities exchange or traded in the over-the-counter market) are valued at quoted market prices or at an appropriate discount from such price if marketability of the securities is restricted.

The College uses the NAV to determine the fair value of all the underlying investments, which (a) do not have a readily determinable fair value and (b) prepare their financial statements consistent with the measurement principles of an investment company or have the attributes of an investment company. Per Accounting Standards Update (ASU) 2009-12, Fair Value Measurements and Disclosures (Topic 820): Investments in Certain Entities That Calculate Net Asset per Share (or Its Equivalent), the following table lists investments in other investment companies (in partnership format) by major category, in millions of dollars:

(11) Retirement Plans

The College participates with other members of The Claremont Colleges in two retirement plans administered by the Claremont University Consortium – a defined contribution plan and a defined benefit plan. These plans cover all of the College’s eligible employees.

The defined contribution plan provides retirement benefits for all employees through Teachers Insurance and Annuity Association and the College Retirement Equities Fund (TIAA-CREF). Under this plan, College contributions are used to purchase fixed and/or variable annuities offered by TIAA-CREF. Vesting provisions are full and immediate. Benefits commence upon retirement and preretirement survivor death benefits are provided. In conjunction with this plan, employees are able to contribute a portion of their salary into a tax-deferred annuity account and invest such assets in mutual funds offered by TIAA-CREF, Fidelity Investments Institutional Services Company, Inc., or The Vanguard Group.

Prior to July 1, 2005, certain retirement eligible employees participated in a defined benefit plan, wherein the benefits were based on years of service, compensation, and the amount of employee contributions, if any. On June 30, 2005, the plan was frozen and all participants were immediately eligible to become participants in the defined contribution plan. The defined benefit plan continues to be funded in accordance with the Employment Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA) and for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011, the plan has met the minimum funding requirements. Plan assets are invested in a diversified group of equity and fixed-income securities, in an insurance company's separate and general accounts. At June 30, 2012 and 2011, the College's allocation of net pension costs was approximately $293,000 and $484,000, respectively. Also at June 30, 2012 and 2011, the College had a reserve for future funding payments of approximately $3,966,000 and $2,585,000 that was included in accrued payroll and other liabilities on the statement of financial position and approximately $2,352,000 and $1,990,000, respectively, related to contributions made by employees to the College's 457(b) Plan that were included in separately invested assets and accrued payroll and other liabilities on the statement of financial position.

For the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011, the College's contributions to these plans amounted to approximately $5,828,000 and $5,039,000. Also included in the statement of activities for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011 is a comprehensive loss of $1,382,000 and a comprehensive gain of $1,109,000, respectively, relating to the staff retirement plan.

(12) Workers' Compensation

The College participates with other members of The Claremont Colleges in collective insurance agreements including self-insurance for workers' compensation. At June 30, 2012 and 2011, the College had approximately $435,000 and $391,000, respectively, in accounts payable to provide for payment of claims pending. Management believes that the ultimate disposition of these or other claims would not result in any material adjustments to the financial statements.

(13) Endowment

The net assets of the College include permanent endowment and funds functioning as endowment. Permanent endowments are subject to the restrictions of gift instruments requiring in perpetuity that the principal be invested and the income only be utilized as provided for under the California Uniform Prudent Management of Institutional Funds Act (UPMIFA). While funds functioning as endowment have been established by the board of trustees to function as endowment, any portion of such funds may be expended.

The College's endowment consists of approximately 1,800 individual funds established for a variety of purposes including both donor-restricted endowment funds and funds designated by the board of trustees to function as endowments. Net assets associated with endowment funds, including funds designated by the board of trustees to function as endowments, are classified and reported based on the existence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions.

(a) Interpretation of Relevant Law

The board of trustees of the College has interpreted the UPMIFA as permitting the preservation of the original gift as of the gift date of the donor-restricted endowment funds absent explicit donor stipulations to the contrary. As a result of this interpretation, the College classifies as permanently restricted net assets (a) the original value of gifts donated to the permanent endowments; (b) the original value of subsequent gifts to the permanent endowment; and (c) accumulations to the permanent endowment made in accordance with the direction of the applicable donor gift instrument at the time the accumulation is added to the fund.

The remaining portion of the donor-restricted endowment fund that is not classified in permanently restricted net assets is classified as temporarily restricted net assets until those amounts are appropriated for expenditure by the College in a manner consistent with the standard of prudence prescribed by the Act. In accordance with the Act, the College considers the following factors in making a determination to appropriate or accumulate donor-restricted endowment funds:

1. The duration and preservation of the fund
2. The purposes of the College and the donor-restricted endowment fund
3. General economic conditions
4. The possible effect of inflation and deflation
5. The expected total return from income and the appreciation of investments
6. Other resources of the College
7. The investment policies of the College

(b) Return Objective and Risk Parameters

The College has adopted investment and spending policies for endowment assets that attempt to provide a predictable stream of funding to programs supported by its endowment while seeking to maintain the purchasing power of the endowment assets. Endowment assets include those assets of donor-restricted funds that the College must hold in perpetuity as well as board-designated funds. Under this policy, as approved by the board of trustees, the endowment assets are invested in a manner that is intended to produce results that exceed the price and yield results of a custom benchmark that reflects the College's current asset allocation targets and a simple benchmark composed of 85% of the S&P 500 Index and 15% of the Barclays Capital Government/Credit Bond Index, while assuming a moderate level of investment risk.

The College expects its endowment funds to attain, over time and within acceptable risk levels, an average annual real rate of return of approximately 6.00%, net of all investment management and related fees and without regard to whether the return is in the form of income or capital gains. Actual returns in any given year may vary from this amount.

POMONA COLLEGE

Notes to Financial Statements

(c) Strategies Employed for Achieving Objectives

To satisfy its long-term rate-of-return objectives, the College relies on a total return strategy in which investment returns are achieved through both capital appreciation (realized and unrealized) and current yield (interest and dividends). The College targets a diversified asset allocation that places a greater emphasis on equity-based investments to achieve its long-term return objectives within prudent risk constraints.

(d) Spending Policy and How the Investment Objectives Relate to Spending Policy

The College has a policy of appropriating for distribution each year 4.50% to 5.50% of its endowment funds' average fair value over the prior 12 quarters through June 30 one year prior to the beginning of the fiscal year in which the distribution is planned. In establishing this policy, the College considered the long-term expected return on its endowment. Accordingly, over the long term, the College expects the current spending policy to allow its endowment to maintain its purchasing power by growing at a rate at least equal to planned payouts. Additional real growth will be provided through new gifts and any excess investment return. In May 2010, the board of trustees approved a two-year deviation from the College's endowment payout policy to permit the 12-quarter average spending rate to fall below 4.50% and to permit the growth in spending per unit to fall below 4.00%. The temporary reduction in endowment payout was a response to the impact of the 2008 financial crisis on the value of the endowment. For the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011, the board of trustees authorized distributions of $65,022,000 and $64,348,000, respectively, based on an approved spending rate of 4.07% and 3.91%, for current operations from the realized investment gains of pooled investments.

Endowment net assets consist of the following at June 30, 2012 and 2011, in thousands of dollars:

(e) Funds with Deficits

From time to time, the fair value of assets associated with individual donor-restricted endowment funds may fall below the level that the donor or UPMIFA requires the College to retain as a fund of perpetual duration. Deficits of this nature that are reported in unrestricted net assets were $1,881,000 and $750,000 as of June 30, 2012 and 2011, respectively. These deficits resulted from unfavorable market fluctuations that occurred shortly after the investment of new permanently restricted contributions and continued appropriation for certain programs that was deemed prudent by the board of trustees. Subsequent gains that restore the fair value of the assets of the endowment fund to the required level will be classified as an increase in unrestricted net assets.

(14) Affiliated Institutions

The amounts paid by the College to Claremont University Consortium for the common student and administrative services and the use of facilities for the years ended June 30, 2012 and 2011 totaled $6,585,000 and $6,722,000, respectively.

(15) Commitments and Contingencies

(a) Line of Credit

At June 30, 2012 and 2011, the College had a $50,000,000 line of credit, which expires on February 28, 2013. Any borrowings on the line would bear interest at a rate set by the bank (2.25% per annum at June 30, 2012 and 2011) and is subject to change from time to time. There were no borrowings outstanding on the line at June 30, 2012 and 2011.

(b) Federal Funding

Certain federal grants that the College administers and for which it receives reimbursements are subject to audit and final acceptance by federal granting agencies. The amount of expenditures that may be disallowed by the grantor, if any, cannot be determined at this time. The College expects that such amounts, if any, would not have a significant impact on the financial position of the College.

(16) Subsequent Events

Subsequent events have been evaluated through November 16, 2012, which is the date the financial statements were issued.
