

Overview

- Designed by Machado Silvetti and Gensler
- Total cost: $44 million
- Cornerstone donor: Janet Inskip Benton (Pomona '79) with gift of $15 million
- Three times the gallery space of previous Montgomery Art Center
- State-of-the-art smart study rooms
- First time in museum's history that staff and collection are under one roof

Schedule

- Groundbreaking: November 4, 2017
- Completion: June 2019
- Installation: September 2019–March 2020
- “Soft” Opening (viewing by appointment): May 2021
- Opening Celebration: Fall 2021

Building Facts

- Total square footage: 33,331 sq ft
- Building materials (including recycled and locally sourced): Cast-in-place concrete, red clay tiles, red cedar, bronze
- Multiple entrances to serve campus and community
- 5,100 sq ft of gallery space across 6 flexible galleries (largest at 1,500 sq ft)
- 900 sq ft events pavilion with 12.5 ft tall sliding doors that open completely to the courtyard
- 2,000 sq ft painting collection vault
- 1,600 sq ft collection storage for Native American collection

- 1,300 sq ft collection storage for works on paper
- Offices, work areas, and archive room
- Outdoor sculptures, including special commission by Alison Saar, Imbue
- Succulent garden
- Wrap-around porticos
- Art hallway open to the courtyard
- Art patio that houses “Untitled” by Chris Burden ’69
- “Reading room” with natural light, seating, and exhibition space
- 7 gender neutral bathrooms
- LEED Gold status with one of the lowest Energy Use Intensity scores of any museum built in California in the last decade

First Floor	Second Floor	Lower Level
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 4,100 sq ft of gallery space across 4 galleries</li> <li>• 1,000 sq ft across 2 curricular galleries</li> <li>• 900 sq ft events pavilion</li> <li>• Five work spaces</li> <li>• 2,000 sq ft collection vault</li> <li>• Loading dock and work room</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 3 offices</li> <li>• Archive room</li> <li>• Large work area</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• 1,600 sq ft collection storage for Native American collection</li> <li>• 1,300 sq ft collection storage for works on paper</li> <li>• 1,400 sq ft for 2 study rooms adjacent to vault storage</li> <li>• 1,200 sq ft of additional storage space</li> <li>• Office and work area for registrar</li> </ul>

Project Credits

Design Architects	Machado Silvetti
Architect of Record	Gensler
Engineer of Record	KPFF Consulting Engineers
Structural Engineer	Nabih Yousseff Associates Structural Engineers
MEP/FP Engineer	Buro Happold Consulting Engineers, Inc.
Landscape Architect	EPT Design Inc.
Project Manager	Brian Faber, Pomona College
Lighting Designer	Lam Partners
Lighting System	Lutron
Code Consultant	Younghusband Consulting
Specifications	AWC West
Waterproofing	SGH
Vertical Transportation	HKA Elevator Consulting
Cost Consultant	C.P. O’Halloran Associates
General Contractor	Hathaway Dinwiddie