Hallo, ihr Lieben!

I hope everyone had a good weekend and is not too stressed out in the weeks leading up to Thanksgiving. As it is, there are a lot of German events before then that you shouldn’t miss! This newsletter covers

1) Study Break: Käsespätzle and Mafia
2) German-Argentinian movie night: The German Doctor
3) Film screening and Q&A with the director: Who killed Johnny?
4) Trip to the Wende Museum
5) Musical: Spring Awakening
6) German movie night: Fack Ju Göhte
7) Things to look forward to – save the date

1) Study Break: Käsespätzle and Mafia

On Thursday, Nov 13 we meet in the German Lounge at Oldenborg and make Käsespätzle (German pasta dish with lots of savory cheese and onions) in my apartment while playing a few rounds of Mafia, Who am I or whatever game you want to play. We start at 8 pm, please be somewhat on time, so I don’t have to do all the cooking on my own!

For the flyer, please see: http://mirjaschoderer.wordpress.com/2014/11/09/study-break-kasespatzle-kochen-und-mafia/

—> Students, this counts as a cultural activity

2) German-Argentinian movie night: The German Doctor

The Spanish language resident and I banded together to bring a joint movie night to you and it’s happening on Monday, Nov 17 at Oldenburg’s International Theater (in the basement, right next to the entrance to the dining hall), starting at 8 pm. The movie is in German and Spanish with English subtitles, so please feel welcome to bring your friends!
The German Doctor tells the story of an Argentinian family who get to know a German doctor who then comes to live with them but after a while they discover the real reasons he came to Argentina for.

For the flyer, please see http://mirjaschoderer.wordpress.com/2014/11/10/cultural-activity-11-german-argentinian-movie-night-the-german-doctor/

—> Students, this counts as a cultural activity!

3) Film Screening and Q&A with director Yangzom Brauen: Who killed Johnny?

On Tuesday, Nov 18, at 7:15 pm, we have another film screening at the International Theater, but this time the director and co-producer will both be present for a Q&A-session afterwards. Yangzom Brauen is a Swiss-Tibetan actor and political activist in the Free Tibet movement. The movie Who killed Johnny? is her directorial debut and a comedy about two Swiss actors looking for fame who suddenly find a corpse on their doorstep.

For the flyer, please see http://mirjaschoderer.wordpress.com/2014/10/19/cultural-activity-9-who-killed-johnny-film-screening-and-discussion-with-the-director/

—> Students, this counts as a cultural activity
4) Trip to the Wende Museum

Thanks to Scripps language resident Laura Dörsam we have the opportunity to get a private tour through the extensive GDR-related collection at the Wende Museum in Colver City on Friday, Nov 21. The bus leaves shortly after lunch and will be back before dinner. The entire trip is for free. If you want to join us, please let me know as soon as possible, so the people at they can arrange something if we’re too many people for a single tour!

5) Musical: Spring Awakening

From Nov 20 to Nov 23, the Pomona Department of Theater and Dance performs the musical Spring Awakening at Seaver Theater. Performances are at 8 pm on Thursday, Friday and Saturday and on 2 pm on Saturday and Sunday. If you want to join the rest of the German students and me, please participate in the poll http://doodle.com/c6c3zniv6u3fh277 so that I can buy enough tickets for the right dates!
For the flyer, please see http://mirjaschoderer.wordpress.com/2014/11/09/cultural-activity-11-musical-spring-awakening/

   --> Students, this counts as a cultural activity!

6) German movie night: Fack Ju Göhte

On Monday, Nov 24, we are showing the comedy Fack Ju Göhte at Oldenborg’s International Theater. It was a smash hit in Germany in 2013 and tells the story of a crook who through a set of circumstances comes to pose as a teacher at one of Berlin’s worse schools where he develops a set of rather unorthodox teaching methods. The movie starts at 8 pm and will be in German with English subtitles.
For the flyer, please see http://mirjaschoderer.wordpress.com/2014/11/11/cultural-activity-13-german-movie-night-fack-ju-gohte/

   --> Students, this counts as a cultural activity!

7) Things to look forward to – Save the date!
• Study Break on Tuesday, Dec 2: we’re baking German christmas cookies!

---------------------------------

LANGUAGE FELLOWS and tutoring hours

Sydney Scott <sr12012@MyMail.pomona.edu>: Tutoring hours are Sundays, 7-8 p.m., at the FLRC, Mason Hall, Room 101
Sydney will also be available 1 hour by appointment only.

Julius Torres-Kellinghusen <jrt02012@MyMail.pomona.edu>: Tutoring hours are Mondays, 7-8 p.m. at the FLRC, Mason Hall, Room 101
You can also see Julius every Monday at Language Tables at Oldenborg, 12-1 p.m.

Solveig Olsen-Strom <sko12014@MyMail.pomona.edu>: Tutoring hours are Wednesdays, 7-8 p.m. at the FLRC, Mason Hall, Room 101
Solveig also attends German Language Tables on Fridays, 12-1 p.m.

Drop-ins are welcome, but reservations are strongly recommended for visits to the FLRC. Please make reservations on the Oldenborg website. Language Fellows may also be consulted via Skype. Please visit the Oldenborg website for more information: http://oldenborg.pomona.edu

Please make also use of the LANGUAGE TABLES as useful opportunities to practice your German!

--> OLDENBORG LANGUAGE TABLES: The German Table (along with many others) meets Monday through Friday 12-1 p.m.

---------------------------------

Wir sehen uns,

Mirja
--
Mirja Schoderer
German Language Resident
Oldenborg Center, Pomona College
350 N. College Way, Claremont CA 91711
Telephone: 909-621-8745
Website: mirjaschoderer.wordpress.com