Fall 2015 Claremont Colleges Chinese and Japanese Placement Examinations

All students who wish to enroll in a course in Chinese and Japanese, and who have had any previous experience whatsoever in the language which they plan to study, must take the placement examination.

The Chinese and Japanese language placements will consist of two parts. Part 1 will be on Sakai and must be completed online by August 27th for both Chinese and Japanese. (Please note that the exam will be off-line from August 21-23.) Part 2 of the exams will be given in Mason Hall on the Pomona College campus on Sunday, August 23rd at 8:00 am for Pomona students and Friday, August 28th at 8:30 am for the students at the other Claremont Colleges.

Students must complete both parts. For the online portion please refer to the Sakai directions posted at the bottom of this page. For the on campus portion please refer to your orientation schedule.

In order to ensure the accuracy of the placement test results, please answer the questions to the best of your ability without consulting dictionaries, notes, or other forms of reference.

The Chinese and Japanese placement exams are in two parts:

Chinese:
Part 2 (oral and dictation) will be taken in person at Mason Hall (550 N. Harvard Avenue), Room 5 at 8:00 am on the 23rd for Pomona students and 8:30 am on the 28th for students at the other colleges.

Japanese
Part 2 (including oral) will be taken in person at Mason Hall (550 N. Harvard Avenue), Room 19 at 8:00 am on the 23rd for Pomona students and 8:30 am on the 28th for students at the other colleges.
