TEACHING, DEPARTMENTAL AFFAIRS, AND ACADEMIC ADVISING

o Please list the standard courses (with student enrollments) that you taught during 2014. Feel free to comment on any aspects of these courses, such as whether they are new contributions to the curriculum, reflect substantial pedagogical revisions, or incorporate community partnership, problem-based learning, or other active pedagogies such as field trips. Please also indicate whether such pedagogies and innovations involve other departments or programs.

o Please describe your participation in your department’s senior exercise.

o Please list the student names and subjects of the senior theses you supervised during 2014, indicating whether you were the first, second, or third reader for the thesis.

o Please report the names of any students who worked with you as a research assistant (indicate whether paid or unpaid), including SURPS, in 2014.
Please list the student name and course subject of any independent study or summer reading course you supervised during 2014.

Please list any other noteworthy teaching-related activities (including workshops and conferences) not covered by the preceding questions.

Please report the number of your 2014 student advisees, indicating how many are first-year students.

Please indicate other significant teaching or extracurricular activities, such as mentoring students from underrepresented groups (Posse, HAP, PAYS, etc.), during 2014.

SCHOLARSHIP: Please report here such items as publications (with complete bibliographic citation), grants (include funding source, title, a brief description of the proposal, and status), service on grant external review panels, honors (include a brief description), performances (with name and location of theatre or concert hall, date and nature of performance or program; note if performance was a premiere), exhibitions (with name and location of gallery or institution and nature and dates of show), conference papers or presentations (with title, name, place, and date), attendance at professional meetings, consulting or counseling, membership in professional organizations, or any other work or activity which reflects your participation in professional affairs or the development of your professional interests and capacities. Please indicate if any publications or conference papers are co-authored with current or former Pomona students.
SABBATICAL ACTIVITIES: If you were on sabbatical leave during any part of 2014, please report on accomplishments resulting from your leave.

SERVICE TO THE DEPARTMENT, COLLEGE AND COMMUNITY: Please report such things as appointment or election to College or faculty offices and committees, participation in special programs, projects or events, memberships in campus or community organizations, advising student groups, and other contributions to the life of your department, the College or the community.

MISCELLANEOUS: Any further remarks or observations that you think should be included in this report.

OPTIONAL: As originally suggested at a 3-divisional meeting and endorsed by the Executive Committee, faculty are encouraged to provide a five-year professional development plan. This is completely optional, but if you choose to submit a plan, I am happy to meet with you periodically over the next five years to discuss your progress and any revisions needed along the way. Our goal is to provide you the opportunity to monitor and report your goals and achievements over a specific time period.
